STONY HILL ACADEMY.
THE Examination of the Students at this Institution, will take place on THURSDAY and FRIDAY, 15th and 16th June, at which time Parents and Guardians, are particularly invited to attend.

The exercises will re-commence on MONDAY, 3rd July, and terminate 1st December, at the usual prices, for Board, &c. 40 dollars.—Tuition will vary from 10 to 15 dollars, with a small tax of 50 cents for privileges of Student's Library.

The Students of this School are treated as members of a family, and while their intellectual improvement is strictly attended to, a parental watchfulness is kept over them, to guard them against the now too prevalent vices of dissipation, extravagance, and idleness, and at the same time to early impress on their minds the importance as well as the constant practice of virtue. The better to effect this object, the number of Students will again be strictly limited, and none (if possible) received, who cannot submit to an easy, mild, and parental, but a strict, firm and prompt discipline, under which the school at this place has prospered even beyond our expectations, and has suffered few and short inconveniences from bad associations and immoral influences.

The situation of the School is one combining all the advantages of health and retirement, with not a Gill Shop within five miles.

ENTERTAINING, USEFUL, AND CHEAP BOOKS.
FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS, FAMILIES, and READERS OF ALL AGES.

THE Publications of the American Sunday School Union, are under the direction of eight persons, two are Baptists, two are Methodists, two are Presbyterians, and two are Episcopalians. Not a sentence can be published if either of the Committee object. This is to prevent anything of a Sectarian character. Nothing is hazarded when it is said that cheaper, better, more useful or safer books for children, cannot be obtained in our country. Among them are the lives of Washington, Col. Gardner, Brainerd, Knox, J. Newton, Martin, Francke, Elliott, Spencer, Edwards, Oberlin, Mrs. Judson, and Mrs. Newell. Also, the histories of the principal persons mentioned in the Bible, as the lives of Moses, Abraham, David, Elijah, Elisha, Daniel, Esther, John the Baptist, Paul, and several others. Besides these, there are histories showing the evils and dangers of particular vices, as the Harvey Boys, and Scenes of Intemperance; the Little Deceiver, on Falsehood; The Ringleader, on the danger of bad company; on the doctrines and duties of Religion; interesting works on things about us.—In addition to these, there are works on almost every useful subject, including, Missions, Ecclesiastical History, Books for Apprentices, Domesticity, Parents; Hymn Books; Union Questions; Spelling Books; easy reading, &c. &c. There are now fourteen depositories of these Books established in this State, where the Books can be obtained at the same prices, as of the Parent Society in Philadelphia.

The one in Raleigh is kept by Primrose & Holland, this has lately been established. The one in Fayetteville by James Miller. Wilmington, by G. R. French. Newbern, by Jas. Stevenson. Hillsboro', by Dr. Webb. Salem, by C. Krewzer. Salisbury, by Lemly & Son. Greensboro', by Wm. Linsley. Charlotte, by D. Parks. 136-3t.

PROCLAMATION
By the Governor of North Carolina.
200 Dollars Reward.

Whereas it has been made known to me by the verdict of an inquest held by the Coroner, that A. G. Keys, of the county of Martin, was recently murdered in said County, and that George W. Coburn, (of the county and State aforesaid), stands charged with the commission of the said felony; and whereas it is represented that the said George W. Coburn is a fugitive from justice:

Now, therefore, to the end that the said George W. Coburn, may be apprehended and brought to trial, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of two hundred dollars, to any person or persons who will apprehend and confine him in the jail, or deliver him to the Sheriff of Martin county; and I do moreover hereby require all officers, whether civil or military, within this State, to use their best exertions to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said fugitive.

Given under my hand as Governor, and the Great Seal of North Carolina, at the City of Raleigh, this 25th May, A. D. 1837.

EDWARD B. DUDLEY.
CHRISTOPHER C. BATTLE, P. Sec'y.

G. W. Coburn, is about 30 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, thick set, of an athletic and muscular constitution, complexion rather florid, full face, speaks short and quick when spoken to, with eyes somewhat downcast. It is believed he wore on leaving a blue cloth coat with velvet collar. 136-4t.

LAW BOOKS.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform the Judges, Members of the Bar, and Students of Law, that they have for sale at the NORTH CAROLINA BOOK STORE, a large and mixed collection of LAW BOOKS, consisting of ELEMENTARY and LEGAL Works.

One of the firm H. D. TURNER, having located himself at 180 Broad Way, New York, we will be able to procure any BOOKS, which may be in print in the Northern or European Market, at as short a notice as possible.

We take the liberty of suggesting to our friends and acquaintances, and the good citizens of North Carolina generally, the propriety of consulting their interests, (thereby sustaining the Book Store with their patronage,) and in doing so, we will be favored with their orders, which will meet with our usual prompt attention.

Gentlemen visiting the city, are respectfully invited to call and examine our stock, which comprises a large assortment of every kind description.

POPULAR GROVE FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber being desirous to dispose of his LANDS in Nash County, N. C. offers them on the following very accommodating terms. This well known tract of land is the one on which I formerly resided, and is situated in Nash County, N. C., on the daily Stage road from Raleigh to Halifax, 20 miles East of Salisbury, 20 miles West of Enfield, 8 miles North of Nashville, and 8 miles South of H'y. Sims'. This situation is noted as a stand for Merchandise and Tavern keeping, being situated on the great thoroughfare, East and West. When I moved from the above place to Warren, (where I now live,) this place was in a high state of improvement, the buildings were calculated for the above purposes, my price was then $4,000, and could have sold it for $3,500. For the want of my personal attention, the property has diminished from its former value, in consequence of which, I now offer the POPULAR GROVE tract of LAND, for 1500 Dollars, one fourth to be paid the 1st January next, and the balance at three annual payments, with interest; it contains 400 acres, and adjoins the lands of James N. Moore, Major Jno. H. Drake and others. The buildings are yet worth the money asked for the land, &c. The Poplar Grove is a beautiful situation and none more healthy in the country.

I own one other TRACT OF LAND, within 2 miles of the above place containing adjoining the Lands of G. W. DRAKE and others. It is well adapted to the culture of

444 Acres.

CORN, WHEAT, and COTTON,

I offer this tract at the moderate price of 500 Dollars, one fourth to be paid the 1st January next, the balance at three annual payments, with interest; Bond with approved security will be required, and possession given immediately.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE JOURNAL OFFICE, FOR SALE.

OWING to the intended removal of one of the Editors, and the wish of the other to devote himself more exclusively to the duties of his profession, the undersigned offer for sale the establishment of the

NORTH CAROLINA JOURNAL OFFICE.

The office is well found in Job, Newspaper, and Ornamental Type, the list of subscribers is tolerably large, and they doubt not might be greatly augmented by a little exertion. To any person desirous of embarking in the business, it offers inducements not inferior to any in this State, but to a practical printer they know of no investment he could make of his money, that would yield him a more profitable return.

SHOCCO SPRINGS.
THIS well known Watering place will be again opened for the reception of Visitors on the first of June next. The testimonials of the efficacy of this Water, particularly in cases common to the low lands, are of sufficient notoriety, and require reference only to those whose experience has enabled them to test its virtues. I deem it only necessary to state that the Water has been recently analyzed, and its ingredients are of the same class with most of the Virginia Springs and the famous Bedford Springs of Pennsylvania.

For the benefit of the Public I have thought proper to subjoin a letter or two from eminent Professional men, whose intimate acquaintance with the properties of the Water renders them competent Judges of its efficacy.

Since the last Season, several Bed rooms with Fire places have been erected for the convenience of Families.

ANN JOHNSON.
Shocco Springs, May 25, 1837.

From Simmons J. Baker M. D.
DEAR MADAM—The case referred to, in the conversation I had the honor to have with you a few days past, was that of Mr. Paul, of Scotland Neck. He had a violent acute inflammation of the Liver, which was subdued with great difficulty; when he was convalescent, his skin was of a deep orange color. As Mr. Paul had been severely disciplined, I was unwilling to give him more medicine, and advised him to accompany me to Shocco Springs, to which he consented. We arrived on a Tuesday evening; on Wednesday morning, business carried me to Raleigh, and I did not return until Sunday evening, when to my astonishment, Mr. Paul's skin was as clear as it ever was. In two or three days he returned to Scotland Neck, was drafted and went to Norfolk and remained there until the troops were disbanded. He was one of the few, encamped at the Peach Orchard, who escaped with impunity.

Your most obed't,
S. J. BAKER.
Scotland Neck, May 10, 1837.

From F. A. Thornton, Esq.
Alexandria, Va. Oct. 10, May 10.

DEAR MADAM—For several months previous to leaving home for Shocco Springs, my health was dreadful. Indeed my situation was considered critical. When I reached Shocco, I was unable, without assistance, to get from my carriage to my room. I did not drink the water more than a fortnight, before I had so far recovered my health as to be able to walk alone all over the yard; and, in a very short time afterwards, to the astonishment of my friends, I returned home entirely well.

FRANK A. THORNTON.
From John Beckwith, M. D.
Raleigh May 10, 1837.

DEAR MADAM—You not unreasonably conclude that one who, like myself, has been an occasional visitor at Shocco Springs for more than five and twenty years, should be able to form a just estimate of their medicinal effects. It gives me pleasure to be able, from much observation, and to small personal experience, to say, that the waters are well adapted to cases of convalescence from bilious and intermittent Fevers; that they correct a vitiated or deficient action of the Liver; give keenness to the appetite, and tone and energy to the digestive Organs.

They who reside in low and unhealthy districts of country, will find at Shocco during the Summer months, a pure and invigorating air, comfortable accommodations, mineral waters answering all reasonable expectations, and a table, of which the only fault is, being rather too tempting for invalids.

It is proper to remark, that the water parts, with much of its active properties in a short time after being drawn from the Spring, and therefore, in order to realize its full benefits visitors should take it at the Fountain.

Very respectfully,
JOHN BECKWITH.

To Mrs. Johnson, Shocco Springs.

From Ellis Malone, M. D.
May 2, 1837.

DEAR MADAM—I take pleasure in stating, that in my opinion, the water of Shocco Springs is possessed of an extensive and direct influence over the diseased actions of many of the organs of our system. Actively diuretic, gently laxative, and, if exercise is taken after using it, not a little diaphoretic, together with its invigorating influence over the cholyopoeitic apparatus, increasing the appetite and strengthening the powers of digestion, it could not well be otherwise than that the proper use of it, should be greatly conducive to the restoration of the healthy action of the diseased organs, to which it bears so manifest relation.

My information in relation to its medical properties has been derived from no little personal experience. It will readily occur to intelligent medical men, to what class of diseases a remedy having such effects as described above, will be applicable, who will likely be consulted by invalids wishing to avail themselves of its benefits before leaving their respective homes.

Respectfully, yours, &c.
ELLIS MALONE.

To Mrs. Ann Johnson.

The Roanoke Advocate, Tarboro' Press, Washington Whig, Fayetteville Observer, Newbern Spectator, Wilmington Advertiser, Columbia Telescope, Petersburg Intelligencer, Norfolk Herald and National Intelligences will insert the foregoing, once a week for four weeks, and forward their bills to me at Shocco.

JOB PRINTING DONE AT THIS OFFICE.

with neatness and despatch.

NEW BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTORY,
THE SUBScriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Raleigh and its vicinity, that he has commenced the above business, east of the Capitol Square, three doors North of Mr. William Peck's Store, on Wilmington Street—Where he is prepared to execute all orders in his line. Having first rate workmen in his employ, and a stock of good materials, he feels confident, that for neatness and durability, his work will not be surpassed by any; hoping by an unremitting attention to his business and a desire to please, to merit the confidence and support of the public.

HENRY PORTER.
May 17. 133-7t.

WILLIAMS AND HAYWOOD

Have lately received at their well known stand on Fayetteville Street, near the market house, their Spring and Summer supply of

Drugs and Medicines, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Brushes, Window Glass, Perfumery &c

Which, with their former supply, make their assortment large and extensive, comprising almost every article usually kept in their line of business.

They offer them at wholesale or retail, upon the most favorable terms, as they are determined their assortment shall not be inferior, nor will they be undersold by any establishment in the State, either old or new.

Grateful for the patronage heretofore bestowed upon them by their friends and the public generally, they flatter themselves, that by assiduity and constant attention to business, that they will continue to receive the same liberal encouragement already secured to them.

Prescriptions will be carefully compounded and put up with none but the most genuine articles, under the inspection of one of the proprietors.

Orders from Physicians and Merchants, promptly attended to.

Raleigh, May 20, 1837.

DRUG STORE.

T. S. Beckwith & Co.

HAVE removed to the store in Fayetteville street, formerly occupied by Mr. Dupuy, one door above the STAR OFFICE. Their assortment is now one of the most extensive and complete one in the State, consisting of DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, Patent Medicines, a great variety of Fancy articles, Paints, Oils, Dye-stuffs, choice Vines, Superior Cogniac Brandy, Flint's best Spanish Segars, &c. &c. Physicians from abroad will have their orders promptly attended to, on reasonable terms.

Dec. 7. 110-4t.

Paints, Oils, &c.

A LARGE assortment of White Lead in oil and other Paints, and Linseed Oil, Paint Brushes, &c. for sale by

T. S. BECKWITH & CO.
July 26, 1836. 29-4t.

"At the late term of the Court, Mr. Henry Mayder was fined $100 for leading James Tyme through the streets by the hair of his head.—Saco Democrat.

The fine was outrageous. Had not Mr. Mayder, like every other man, a perfect right to "take Tyme by the forelock?"

There are several banks in Montreal, got up by Yankee speculators, who sell their notes in the States. It was lately proven before a magistrate that one of these had a capital of but $1000, and that was borrowed by the President on a six months endorsed note!

Remarkable Effects of Lightning.—During a thunder storm at Westport, (Conn.) the chimney and one side of the house of Mr. Edwin Wheeler, were literally torn to atoms—mirrors, chairs, piano, &c. scattered to the four winds of heaven, but out of ten persons in the room, even a young lady escaped, while the stove at which she was sitting was thrown down. A child also had just been taken from a cradle, which was torn to splinters. About 150 panes of glass were broken.

Texas Currency.—A gentleman in conversation with a citizen of that beautiful republic, some time since, asked him, how they supplied themselves with a currency? "Oh," he replied, "we have money enough." "Ah," replied the inquisitor, "what kind of currency have you? Specie of course—living so near the mines of Mexico?" "Not at all," said the other. "We pay in cows for large sums, and throw in the calves for change!"

Gamblers Arrested.—The New Orleans Commercial Herald, of the 19th ult. says: "The officers of the first Municipality, yesterday arrested about a dozen gamblers at a house in Bienville-street. Their faro-tables, about $3,000, and other articles, were lodged at the Recorder's office for safe keeping; while the gentlemen were stowed away in the Calaboose. The authorities of the first Municipality are awake at last; we hope they will not sleep again while a professed gambler shall be left within their limits."

WHO IS A GENTLEMAN.—We have heard many attempts to define a gentleman in a few words, but we have never been entirely satisfied with the constituents set forth.—We will not say what a gentleman is, but we can with some positiveness declare what he is not. He is not a man to pry into other people's business—and to alarm his neighbor's creditors with false rumors. He does not pronounce arrogantly or disparagingly on the religion, morals, taste or manners of those about him. He does not try to unsettle or disgust his neighbors religious views or feelings.—He does not offend the sensibilities of others with impious or indecent language.—He is not rude to ladies—negligent of the poor—insolent to the reduced circumstances or ill-natured in his family.—He is too brave to lie—too proud to deceive—too humble to assume. Put these negatives together and you have pretty nearly a positive gentleman.—Carolina Watchman.

FROM THE MONTREAL HERALD.
THE DUEL.

(Translated from the German, by H'y Bernstein.)
Major Van Brandis, I was stationed by the regiment of Hussars, bearing the name of Prince William, on the borders of Baden, in Garrison. The town was very lively and had a very friendly appearance, with beautiful environs; but what composed it for the young officers as a real Paradise, were the numerous handsome young ladies it contained, among them was particularly to be distinguished, the two amiable and fair daughters of the widow of the late Gen. Van Unstruth, who lived here in quiet retirement with her daughters, the oldest was not long ago married to the Captain of the horse belonging to our escadron.

The amiable young lady appeared very seldom in public company, not on account of fearing danger; as her rank, education and the honor of the officers was sufficient protection; but as the town contained only a few rich noble families, so they formed a circle by themselves, and as our Commander was not married, his character would not permit him to mingle in the festivities of the inhabitants.

At this period a young Poleander joined our Regiment as Lieutenant, who was remarkable for his extraordinary beauty. Even the most timorous young lady allowed herself a glance on the slender figure of Rosawsky, when he came galloping on his grey charger; and certainly! we were all obliged to acknowledge him to be the handsomest officer, in spite of our vanity and self love.

Health and benevolence beamed from his regular formed features, an effusion of brown ringlets shaded his high forehead, and beneath his mustachios, could be seen by his least motion to laugh, two rows of pearls, which excelled in whiteness the best polished Ivory; he possessed one of those lovely faces that gain the heart in spite of will.

Rosawsky was of a noble figure, his regimentals appeared as if they had grown with him, and when mounted on his charger, so appeared man and horse to be one. Still he appeared to set little value on the bounties which nature bestowed on him, he was serious and discreet in his conduct towards his superior officers, friendly towards the subalterns, very punctual in the fulfilment of his duty.

In the beginning he visited the places of resort appropriated for the officers, but soon withdrew, and led generally a very
